Instructions for Home Heating Oil Dealers Registration

In accordance with Public Act 01-46, on or after October 1, 2001, no person, firm, or corporation shall engage in the retail sale of home heating oil without a certificate of registration as a home heating oil dealer.

Each person, firm, or corporation seeking a home heating oil dealer registration must submit a registration application provided by the Department of Consumer Protection, and a check or money order in the amount of $100.00, payable to the "Treasurer, State of Connecticut".

All applicants must also provide evidence of general liability insurance coverage and insurance to cover any potential environmental damage due to fuel oil spills. Coverage shall not be less than one million dollars.

All applicants that offer plumbing or heating service work must attach a list of names and license numbers of all licensed employees or subcontractors performing this work.
